

Management Strategists Consulting Group, LLC (MSCG) is a joint venture of Innovative Management Strategists, LLC (IMS) founded by its President, Latonya Dunlow, DHA, MPH in 2007, and Management Solutions Consulting Group, Inc. (MSCG, Inc.) founded by its President, Kelly Garry Burks, RN, MBA in 2001. The joint venture, MSCG is certified by the U.S. Small Business Administration as an 8(a) Small Disadvantaged (SDB) and minority Women-Owned Small Business (WSB). The partners of the joint venture have a long-term professional relationship that spans nearly 20 years and includes the successful execution of outstanding delivery services for multiple contracts in the Departments of Health and Human Services, Defense, and Agriculture. The joint venture is just one of many actions completed under their successful Mentor-Protégé program agreement.

MSCG's capabilities are rich in program management expertise that serves Federal government clients in the healthcare arena and provides technical assistance and site visit support to HRSA's HIV/AIDS Bureau grantees. MSCG supports HAB recipients/entities in the following manner: onsite reviews to assess compliance with the requirements of the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program; technical assistance to improve the capacity, outcome and cost effectiveness of healthcare and support services funded under these programs; to improve access to HIV-related care for historically underserved populations; and to enhance their coordination and linkage with other local, state, and federally supported HIV-related services.
